A SPANISH COLUMN CRUSHED.

GOMEZ ANNIHILATES GENERAL CASTEL-LANOS AT NAJASA.

ONE THOUSAND SPANIARDS SAID TO HAVE BEEN KILLED AND WOUNDED-THE REBELS . FI-NALLY WITHDRAW UNDER THE FIRE OF GENERAL GODOY.

Havana, June 17, via Tampa, Fla., June 19 .-The event of the week has been Gomez's splendid ory at Najasa, Puerto Principe. The details thus far are meagre, the best report received here up to the present time being from the corre-spondent of the "Discussion," which is regarded as the best informed independent paper in Havana. He cays that General Jiminez Castellanos left Puerto Principe on June 8 with 2,114 men, 342 horses and five mounted pieces of artil-On June 9 they encamped at a cattle ranch called Saratoga, where about 4 o'clock p. m. the

The story of General Castellanos, who commanded the Spaniards, is that the Cuban charges were repelled either by artillery fire or by forming hollow squares, which the Spaniards con-sider unbreakable. Still Castellanos confesses that there were moments of great danger, and only by displaying the greatest valor could the Spaniards succeed in repelling the attacks of the enemy. He admits that the number of wounded Spanish troops obliged him to erect his camp hospital in the farmhouse of the ranch, a brick and tiled-roofed structure, which was so riddled with bullets that some of the wounded men were struck after being placed inside. Castellanos also acknowledges that General Godoy's arrival was opportune, since the forty-two hours had exhausted his troops. In view of the loss inflicted on the forces, Generals Godoy and Castellanos decided to return to the city without pursuing the enemy, who had already begun their retreat on Godoy's appearance.

Varela, the correspondent, says that the Spanish troops fired 50,000 cartridges and 36 shells, and the rebels 25,000 shots. He figures the rebel losses from 400 to 500, and the Spaniards, at 25, of which only four were killed and the rest wounded, more or less, including two officers. He condes his story by simply announcing the arfinal of both columns in Puerto Principe, without stating in what condition they entered the city. whether all their commanding officers of high or low rank returned, or who were missing. This is the Spanish side of the fight, which is borne out by the official report.

From other sources, incomplete and lacking important details, it is shown that Gomez had only 1.800 men. General Castellanos's forces amounted to 3,500 men. He, knowing of his rival's approach, placed the men in convenient positions, dividing his forces in small groups of 100 men each. As soon as the Spaniards were comfortably encamped in the ranch, preparing for the next day's attack on Gomez's stronghold at Najasa, the Cuban chief suddenly made his appearance, attacking their positions simultaneously on all sides.

Taken unawares and completely surrounded, all the Spanierds could do was to defend thembelieves from the continued charges, which, with wives from the continued charges, which, with marvellous military precision, were kept up tight and day, without affording the Spaniards i moment's rest. Thanks to General Godoy's imely arrival with 2,500 men, Castellanos was aved from complete destruction.

It is said that if Godoy had delayed his march it hours longer Castellanos would have surrendered, as he was already too weak to stand much fighting longer.

The actual losses on both sides have not been accertained yet. It is only known that the spaniards brought with them 320 wounded from the field of action, and whether they left any behind is not known. Report has it that the total spanish loss in killed, wounded and missing was over 1,000.

ONLY ELEVEN REBELS KILLED. THE OPINION GAINING GROUND IN HAVANA THAT SPANISH REPORTS OF VICTORIES

Havana, June 19.—Private advices from Camaguey are to the effect that the rebel loss in the battle of Najasa was only eleven killed and forty-nine wounded, instead of 500 killed and wounded, as was stated in the official report of the fight. The opinion Saining ground here that the Spanish reports of a setory are untrue.

THE LAURADA'S CAPTAIN ARRESTED. Philadelphia, June 19.-United States Commisstoner Reil issued warrants to-day for the arrest of Captain Dickman, of the steamer Laurada, of Captain Dickman, of the steamer Laurada, and Colonel Emillo Nunez, the Cuban leader, charging them with conducting a fillbustering expedition to Cuba on that vessel. Late this afternoon Cantain Dekman was arrested in the office of John D. Hart, and at a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Hell he was held in $1,000 bail for a further hearing on June 24. Bail was furnished, and Captain Dickman was released. No evidence was offered at the hearing to-day, and it is understood that the principal witnesses against Captain Dickman will be members of the crew of the Laurada.

There is little likelihood of the warrant issued for Colonel Nunez heins served now, as it is more than probable that he is on his way to Cuba on a filibustering vessel which sailed recently.

Havana, June 19.—The rebels under Calixto Garcia attempted to enter Vedado, Velasco and Blanquizar, in the Holzuin jurisdiction, but were repulsed by the Spanish troops at those places. Between Veinses and Boca the rebel vanguard, numbering 300 men, had an engagement with seventy Spanish guerrilleros. The insurgents lost thirty killed and wounded. The guerrilleros lest three killed and several wounded. The rebels fiel without destroying the Gibera-Holgain Refrond track, which was evidently one of their objects. They crossed the line near Auras, with the guerrilleros is, pursuit.

A TERRIFIC EXPLOSION IN BARCELONA. Barcelona, June 19 .- A terrific explosion occurred here at 6 o'clock this evening, and for a time there was a panic in the city, the people imagining that the Anarchists had resumed their nefarious work Quiet was restored, however, when it was learned that the explosion had occurred in a factory de-

THE TRIP OF THE SOZODONT.

Captain Frank Charleen, an old "sea dog" and capital rank thereon an oal sea use and conversely mate on John Jacob Astor's yacht proposes to sail on Sunday, June 21, from the Battery for various European ports in a twenty-foot open sailboat, the Sozodont. His brother will accompany him. The boat has been built especially for this long cruise. It is of six feet eight inches beam and wenty-six inches draft, and is a sloop rigged with jib and mainsail and small flying jib. The Sezodont will carry advertising samples of the dentifrice and will first land at Queenstown, proceeding thence to other European ports. The small boat will lie at the Battery from noon to-day until Sunday afternoon, when the start will be made for Europe about 2:30 o'clock. The Sozodont is the smallest craft which has ever attempted the voyage across the At-lantic and return. About ten years ago the Red, White and Blue, a bark-rigged cabin boat, sailed from this city to Liverpool. Afterward Captain Andrews sailed from Atlantic City to Spain in a cabin boat; then Captain Fritz went from New-York 10 England in a forty-two-foot schooner-rigged craft, and Captain Anderson went from Norway to Chicago in the Viking, seventy-sight feet long, a reproduction of the original Norse boat which sailed to this country 1,000 years ago, according to Norse legend. Captain Webb also crossed the Atlantic in The Dark Secret, a deck boat. White and Blue, a bark-rigged cabin boat sailed
